EYRIE Both game-end proposals of last season were defeated. The F/I/E 3-way draw was defeated with two votes against, two in favour, and one failure to vote counting in favour. The F/E 2-way draw was also defeated in exactly the same way.

There are three proposals for you to vote on with next season's orders :-

- A) A 3-way draw Between England, France & Italy.
- B) A 3-way draw between England, Russia and Italy, with France 4th.
- C) A 4-way draw between England, France, Italy and Russia.

Remember, a failure to vote is taken as a vote in favour.

PRESS

France-Italy Unlucky Neil. The 3-way draw must be a foregone conclusion now.

PRESS

Austria-GM Your comment about the Italian stooge begs the question of how Italy could have arrived at a better centre count than he currently holds. Taking into account the early Austrian supremacy perhaps you could give all of us the benefit of your long experience and tell us when the Italian stab should have been delivered. Are we to assume that falling bravely in front of the Austrian units is a better result than finishing second?

Eyrie-Austria What is so important about Italy's centre count? When you reach 18 centres it doesn't matter whether he has 16 centres or none at all. After all you will have won and he will have lost.

I'm not going to say anything about the Italian play yet; I'll wait until the game is over. Of course it could have ended this season had you taken a couple more of the Italian centres. OK, so you might not want to take centres from your ally but I question whether Italy is really bothered about his final position and supply centre count. Perhaps Ian might let me know?

How do you make a cat go 'woof'? Soak it in petrol and throw it on the fire.

PRESS

France-England Now then, you just behave yourself, John, or else I'll hand over control of my units to John Field.

No Dateline Why is France writing all this press?

Of France Methinks he doth protest too much.

France-Turkey People have called me amny names before, but that's the first time anyone has called me a rucksack.

Turkey-France Yes, there is someone called Phil Craddock and, as you know, I'm having words with him on your behalf right now.

To Austria(R.I.P.) A bad diplomat is like a snobbish lemming. He doesn't mind jumping off cliffs, but he does hate it when the others fall on top of him.

Philosopher asks why was the infamous FOE 48 given the front page of issue 77? Is this fame?

Eyrie In hindsight, it was a mistake to put this game on page 1. This issue it has a more fitting spot....

Turkey-France I think you frightened Italy off.

To Philosopher In other words, don't believe everything you don't read.

Turkey-Eyrie Good heavens, I certainly wasn't insulting either of you! I naturally thought you'd have had a bet on such a long shot and, if you had, it could have stopped the duel before either of you got hurt defending your honour.

St Petersburg-Eyrie When you suggested a duel "Justin Fashanus at fifteen paces" I could not take you up on the offer as I knew you were joking - you would never get a shot on target.

Eyrie Dargin of the season. Forest paid £1M for Fashanu; he scored six goals in 34 games. They sell him to County for £150,000, and he has now scored 9 goals in 15 games, and he is playing very well. Unfortunately I'm typing this before the game against Spurs so I don't know how many he scored in that one. I would forecast at least one goal, probably two, and possible three - after all he's due for a hat trick!

EYRIE Second consecutive NMR by Martin Whittle who is now blacklisted and Russia goes into anarchy. Similarly, Austria goes into anarchy and Edwin Hutton is blacklisted. Tomorrow will be dying.

Anon-Russia My orders were better!

Austria-Anon Know what you mean, gov'nor. In fact in FOE 48 I've already pointed out to one of the players if England wins that game I'll make damned sure I don't win this one. No way do I want to get into an all-winners game with two John Norris's - I'd never get a good peaceful night's kip.

England-Austria Eee lad, any time yer drivin yer Merc up in t'omeland pop in an I'll treat thee to a cuppa.

Friend-France Keep up the good work.

The Times London hopes to announce a major fleet rebuilding programme in the near future to combat the grave Tsarist threat.

CREDITS

Another eight-sided issue, so if you get this by post and live in the U.K. this is costing 8xlp + 16p = 24p. Overseas subscribers pay 8p plus cost of postage. In all cases the cost of this issue has been deducted from your zine credit and the balance of that is shown in the box on the right.

Dunno! what the size of future issues is likely to be; but as you must have sufficient credit to pay for the next issue if you want me to accept your orders. I would suggest that if the figure in the box is less than 30p then you send me some more money to be on the safe side.

With the zine running down to a fold, please don't send large amounts of money when renewing your subscription. £2 to £3 will probably be enough to pay for all future issues.
