POLICY

ISSUE 47

THE HOME OF CRINKLECRUD
FANDOM!

Here we are again with an exceedingly thin forty-seventh issue of ye olde MAD POLICY, a zine of postal Diplomacy from Richard J. Walkerdine, 'Cheriton', 15 Crouch Oak Lane, Addlestone, Surrey, KT15 2AN, UK, on whom be praise. For the reasons for the thinness of this and, probably, the next couple of issues see page three. A subscription to this thing will cost you 6p per issue plus postage (North America: 5/$2.50 air, 5/$1.50 surface), and game fees (Regular games only) are 60p ($1.50) or 40p ($1.00) if you belong to the IDA. Back issues are available for 4p each plus postage.

Today is Monday, September 1st, 1975, which means that the increased postal charges will arrive just in time to catch the next issue. Shit!

The cover this time was based on a bad dream by P. Swanson Esq. - thanks Pete.

This issue's flyer comes to you courtesy of Hammon Enterpriseszzzzz....

Goodbye Frigate, goodbye Filibuster - you'll both be missed!

Even the NGC Treasurer is a member of IDA/UK - are you? If not, send me 80p for a year's subscription.

Apologies...

...for several things, all a result of having too much to do and too little time in which to do it. Briefly, Claire and I are hoping to buy a house in the next few weeks and making the rounds of estate agents, viewing property, making offers, trying to scrape up the cash we need and the hundred and one other things involved is taking up nearly all our time. So please accept my apologies for forgetting to answer letters, getting way behind with the Boardman numbers, producing rather thin issues of MP, and anything else that has, is or will be occurring over the period August to October. With any luck at all I'll be straightened out by the end of the year, but until then I'll just have to ask you all to be patient with me - and I think I know you all well enough by now to know that you'll understand. Thanks friends.

Italian Victory Statement

This was a highly enjoyable game, made so by everyone taking a full part throughout the game.

My original plan was to ally with Russia and take out first Austria and then Turkey. Turkey's attack on Russia robbed me of an ally and left the Franco-German alliance in a strong position. With Austria and Turkey taking longer to die than expected the Franco-German alliance simply had to be broken up. Germany in particular was looking very strong and seemed set to take Russia in the back, whilst France could be heading my way.

I wrote two letters to John Meadon urging him to attack Germany while he was looking the other way and promised him a hard time should he enter the Med. I had almost given up hope when John phoned me a couple of days before the deadline and agreed to do as I asked.

This changed the game my way. With France and Germany locked in combat, Russia was free to help me in the South East and Turkey was soon finished. Andrew naturally wanted revenge on Germany and asked for my help. I saw this as a good opportunity for a stab and with Russia moving north again, I moved in behind him to take the whole south-east corner with hardly a struggle, and with it the game.

This was a particularly satisfying game to win as until Pete Cousins' lapse at the end no-one missed any orders. From my point of view the game went like a dream and once the Franco-German alliance was broken, everything I tried worked beautifully and the win fell into place with what seemed like indecent haste!

My particular thanks to Andrew Waldie for being such a good ally and such an excellent stab victim! Also thanks to John Meadon for keeping his word throughout and coming a well deserved second. Finally thanks to Richard, for his hard work at the typewriter, and for suffering all of us with good grace.

-- Tony Ball.

GM's Comments

Tony is a fine player, and his performance in this game gives added proof of that. Any win with Italy is quite an achievement, but to do it as quickly and easily as he did in this game -- bearing in mind that he had some very experienced and talented opponents -- is a really remarkable effort. I have no doubt that the amount of diplomacy required to ensure that his enemies were always too busy fighting each other to have very much time to watch him was very much greater than his victory statement implies. And his moves of 1907, when he finished off Turkey, stabbed Russia and turned on France, and gained a total of six more centres in one year was nothing short of classic.

For the record, although Pete Cousins dropped out he hasn't been blacklisted as he's already been in touch with me to explain that his lapse was due to circumstances beyond his control. A fine game and one that gave me real pleasure to GM. I hope all the players will be back sometime to play here again.

Waiting Lists

'W' Game: Doubleday, Pollard, Allen, Charlton, Plater, Willey, Coombe. I still need preference lists from Dave Allen and Pete Charlton please. The game will either start here in two issues time or in the Annexe in one or two issues.

'X' Game: Tim Spanton, Martin Hammon, Pete Lindsay. Four more names required for an early start in 1976.

1973BYbb ('I' - Multiplicity) -- Winter 1909 La Manche becomes a Crowded Channel

Retreat: English 4F Bre - Pic.

Winter 1909 Adjustments

E(Doubleday): 13 Centres: Removes A Gal.

F(Morris) : 1 Centre : No change.

I(Meadon) : 10 Centres: Removes 2F Bre (leaving 3F Bre).

T(Davidson) : 10 Centres: Builds F/2A Con.

I have a proposal from one of the players that the game be ended as a 3-way draw between England, Italy and Turkey. Votes with your next set of orders please - and as usual failure to vote will count as a vote in favour of ending the game.

1974BE ('O') -- Spring 1909 Italy, Russia fight for fourth place.

FRANCE (Birks): A Par - Bur, A Bre - Pic, A Mar - Pie S by F GoL, F Edi - Yor,
A Lon - Yor, F Spa(SC) - WMS S by F Tun.

GERMANY (Burton): A StP - Mos S by A War, F GoB - Swe, F Nwy - StP(NC),

ITALY (Knowles/Kelly): F TyS MS F Rom, A Ven S A Tri, A Vie MS A Tri ((A Vie was removed last autumn)).

RUSSIA (Bullock): A Ukr - Gal S by A Rum, A Sev - Arm.

TURKEY (Challenger): F Ion S (FRENCH) F Tun - TyS, A Apu - Rom S by F Nap, F Alb - Tri S by A Ser, A Bud - Rum, A Smy - Con, A Ank - Arm.

No retreats.

And now we have a rather difficult position with regard to proposals for a draw. Two players have proposed a draw; the first (Proposal A) is that the game be ended as a 2-way draw between France and Germany with Turkey third and Italy and Russia equal fourth; the second (Proposal B) is that it be ended as a 3-way draw between France, Germany and Turkey, with Italy and Russia equal fourth.

Separate votes please for both proposals with your next set of orders - and as usual failure to vote will count as a 'yes'. God knows what we'll do if both proposals are accepted though....

And would RON KELLY continue to send orders for ITALY please, as I don't know when Terry's holiday finishes. Ta.

1974F ('P') -- Autumn 1910 Could still go either way...

1974BT ('Q') -- Spring 1907 What'll I do wrong next?

Every GM seems to have one game that gets jinxed, and this one seems to be mine. The latest error on my part is that I promised a separate Winter 1906 build season for this game - and promptly forgot all about it! Dave Black's missed builds are therefor explained and rectified this time: he's now got an extra Fleet in Con. Sorry, one and all...

AUSTRIA (Samson): NMR! A Bud stands unordered.

Would GEOFF CHALLENGER please send in another set of moves for ENGLAND please, just in case Terry doesn't get back in time. Ta.

Glasgow: Turkey comes and Turkey goes but Dave Black goes on coming!

The main reason I like being Turkey is the thought of having the target of reaching that well known city on the Clyde. It means that I have returned home.

Standby moves for RUSSIA please, from RON KELLY (Room 210, 225 Virginia Ave S.E., Washington DC 20061, USA). Ta Ron:

Edinburgh: The Scots, having extended their power to cover England, have moved the capital north to try and protect MP from the north-south westwards pincer. Will this ploy succeed? Try the next issue to see if mad policies do.

Gurgle: On the fifth turn of Hyperec my ally sent to me;
 Five gold fac-tors, four fishing fleets,
 Three Tr's, two armouries,
 And 5Ag in a tt.

Headingley-on-Sea: A shocked world learned today of the outrage perpetrated at the site of the England-Australia Diplomacy tournament. Members of a group described as 'The Association for the de-blacklisting of Dave Pink' had broken into the hall during the night and destroyed a number of Diplomacy boards by daubing slogans on them in sticky oil and making holes in the supply centres.

A spokesman for the tournament organisers told us, 'Although 49 world-class players, 784 high-quality armies and fleets and 14 table adjudicators are all available and have already been paid for, and despite the fact that thousands of ticket-holders who expected to watch the tournament will be disappointed, we could not possibly contemplate holding it at an alternative venue, although there are several available. Nor can we postpone the match until the boards are repaired, even though this will only take a few days and the hall will not be required for anything else until the twentieth of October.'

Dave Pink's brother-in-law twice removed commented, 'Of course a lot of people will be annoyed - but what is a days Diplomacy compared to the black-listing of an innocent player?' Dave Pink himself was supposed to say something, but he forgot.

ISSUE 29.

From the wild and woolly foothills of Freckleton Marshes, it's the best sub-zine ever to be produced West of Blackpool. This is John Morrison of 9, Highfield Avenue, Inskip, Preston, Lancashire, PR4 0UE. Printing is of much poorer quality, but then it is done in Imrryr, so what can you expect.

It is now Wednesday, and I am still four sets of orders missing, and as there are only two games running at the moment, that is really pathetic. I suppose that part of the blame must fall on the fact that it is the holiday season, but you chaps in U Game have had ample time to get your orders in. Mind you, I would like to have words with the fool who put my deadline on a Bank Holiday.....not that I was on holiday, we don't have that day off where I work....damn slave drivers.

Now then, straight on with the new game.....

Right then, that is a very interesting start. Many thanks to David Tant for sending in stand-by orders for all of the countries. I have used Davids moves for Italy and Turkey, and Robin Allen and Howell Davies are hereby warned that they must get their orders in next issue or face the chop.

In all fairness to Pete, I had to carry out these moves, as he was the only one who had remembered to send in his orders. I am sure that Pete would not want to win this way, as it tends to make one forget his excellent play which has made this ultimate conclusion possible. Anyway, Well Gone Pete, and I am certain that you won't miss out on your moves next time. Victory statement if possible as well please.

Well, that's it. I shall leave all this room for Walkerdine to fill in all of his rubbish.
