Ankara to Italian Gvmt in Exile: Just how long does that power of attorney you gave the Austrian megalomaniac, last?

Paris: Which ever of Austria and Germany who hasn't attacked me this go gets control of the French units.

Imrryr: Well, looks like they both attacked you - and each other too - so how about letting me take control? It's too fascinating a game to merely GMI it...

For Sale: 'How I tried to rip-off Mick Bullock but found he was unhinged already' by Bo Ringpress. Will consider part-exchange for a reliable way of measuring exponential self-righteousness in Halifax publishers and a good pair of ear-plugs.

Jofil: Why don't you rotten swine have some faith in the Lira or Rouble, and let me get some money back!

Tycoon: The Story So Far. P. Walter Swanson, financier and wheeler-dealer extraordinaire, had sent out his three aides, Walkerdine, Birsan and Nye, to find out how his arch rival Piggott had managed to promote Ethilfrog Enterprises into a serious threat to PW's own corporation. They had sent Nye to Stutt, Piggott's toadie and partner, but he was bumped off by Siberia Frigid, Swanson's private APOLOGIES: Let me first apologise for the non-appearance of last time, but I was literally laid-up, and typing was out of the question. However, thanks to my lovely Physiotherapist Wendy (It's so much better when you go private!) I am now far more active. She tells me I will probably have to take things easy for another six months, but all should then be well. So, on with the games....

WILTER builds follow the Peecs;

Albania: The Emperor stared out of his carriage window. The bleak Albanian countryside stared back. Why had he chosen this route to return to Vienna? Surely passing through picturesque Budapest would have been more pleasant? Then he remembered. From the depths of his soul came an excruciating pain-the thought of Budapest would now only cause grief.

"Is it possible for one man to endure such loneliness and heart-break?" (He was thinking aloud.)

"Wouldn't like to say", sniffed Kaufmann (for his cold had not been cured by the Athens air).

The Emperor sighed-it was going to be a long journey to Vienna.

Zorn to AUSTRIA: SOD OLF!

Der Pollardbunker in Moscow: Taking a minute off from his seizure of total power on the JCR Committee, Der Pollardführer paused to scan through Mad Policy. A piece of white paper fluttered out-the MWR rating list. Scanning it rapidly he discovered he was 130th!!!

"Hein Gott, Ziss means there are five fools worse than me".

Zorn to Zorn: who are you?

Zorn's Lemma. Rules the Cosmos and beyond(official Tars agency).

Bundestag headquarters, Berlin: The Kaiser smiled happily. "What news from the front, Herr Kutt?" (He always relied on his local Barber for the gossip). The barber suddenly realised that the lock he had been trying to snip off was the spike on the Kaiser's helmet. He removed the helmet from the Kaiser's head, and saluted it, believing it was the crown, and not the wearer, which demanded loyalty. "News?" he murmured mildly. "I believe we shall be drinking Burgundy before the year is out. I hear that the General has given permission for our armies to rape the men and kill the women." The Kaiser frowned. "Don't you mean the other way round?" The barber thought. "Yes, dear," he said. "I was fantasising again."

CM NOTES ON '01 GAME: Firstly, thanks to Ronald Kelly and Tony Crouch for the unused Stand-by moves. Secondly, a request for Stand-by orders for FRANCE from PETER LINDSAY, who also provided unused standby orders this time, as he seems to have done for every move. Keep trying Fete! Next, there has been a proposal from an irate John Coombe, and I must admit that I sympathise to some extent with John.

He proposes 1) that the game be conceded to Austria & Germany, with the rest of us third!

AND 2) That Dave Pollard be removed from the game whether he like it or not. He goes on to point out that Dave sent in only one set of moves out of the first three, and this makes alliances impossible. I then quote, "I would hope that something can be done before the game is entirely ruined as it is quickly becoming. Given a choice between concession and a re-start I'd prefer the latter, but I would guess .. & G would prefer the first."

Your comments please, particularly on the re-start. As Dave has sent in orders this time, with a letter explaining his missed moves and an assurance that he wants to continue, I am letting things ride at the moment, but rest assured that I will not be lenient with missed moves in future.
