Do you realise that this is the first season in this game not to have a NMR! Still, I hope that from now on there will be no more, but that's really up to you. So far I have three names for P/2 and I hope the recent plug in Ethil will bring in a few more. Gamefee is 60p and standbys will NOT be used. Address all bundles of £5 notes, assorted pornographic magazines and orders for P/1 to Stephen Agar, 3 North Road, Chester-le-Street, Co.Durham, DH3 4AQ.

Press

Italy-England: NB. Manchester is nowhere near Coventry.

Paris-Rome: I am quite capable of guarding my own rear, thank-you. I especially don't want any Italians sniffing around!

Berlin-Rome: The Pope's "friends" in Berlin appreciate the touching concern of his Holiness about the worries caused by his armies in Tyrolia but at the same time find it difficult to understand why they keep occupying the place, if not to cause trouble. In short: clear off!!!

Also they would like to give their assurance that the matters which his Holiness raised in the communique are being looked into.

NOTE No orders were received from Paul Segal this season so a standbye is taking over Turkey. He is Kevin Harbottle of 7 Cresswell Drive, Gosforth, Newcastle-upon-Tyne. I should mention that I know Kevin quite well, but you have my word that no "funny business" will be going on.

New Zines Dept. The demise of the late lamented MAD POLICY has risen to the production of a new zine called ENIGMA. From issue one it looks as though ENIGMA is going to carry on the high standard of MP. ENIGMA is published by Neil McDonald, Durweston House, Durweston, Blandford Forum, Dorset.

& John Herlihy, The Old Rectory, Tarrant Gunville, Blandford Forum, Dorset.

At the moment ENIGMA costs 9p per issue plus postage.

By the way, everyone in P/1 can start trusting Phil Dyson again - he's just made an alliance with me in NGC 184. Also, if you come up against one Der Garvey sometime in the future, read his letters and then you'll have a good indication of what he won't be doing. Alliances with him are not recommended - unless I hear that he's changed his mind in the very near future.

Interesting Information

No. of games people in P/1 are playing in apart from it:
Chris Rick - FW 3. Martin Styler - 3. Norman Williams - 5.
Keith Smith - FW 2. Ian Phillips - 0. Kevin Harbottle - 0.
Phil Dyson - FW 4.

Also Norman has already won one game outright, but he was playing France in that (NGC 143).

This is even shorter than usual because I have exams over the next two weeks, but this does not affect the next deadline which is:

SATURDAY 10th DECEMBER

As John Figgott's put a plug for P/2 in ETHIL THE FROG, I will mention that you can get ETHIL from John at Flat 6, 15 Freeland Road, Ealing Common, London W5 3HR. It's well worth a sub if you can afford the 25p per issue.

There's a film starting on TV I want to see now, so until next time,

Cheers,

Stephen
