SPECIAL BUMPER ISSUE!

I have decided that after issue 30 of Pigmy, this zine will be no more.

All games will now be run by Willy Haughan, 140 Dilston Road, Newcastle upon Tyne in his zine Howay the Lads, with the following exceptions:

- 1) Aircraft Abstraction and Deluge, which I will continue to GM with reports inside HtL.
- 2) ECW Games which I will run myself.

However, send all orders to me for issue 30 by FRIDAY 28th SEPTEMBER.

Issue 30 will be excellent, that I can assure you. I intend to go out with a bang! Planned contents include a tongue in cheek character sketch of the typical postal Diplomacy player, a psychiatric analysis of zine editors as a specis, a new variant (grean!), census results, Geordiecon report, letters, and the exclusive autobiography of a schoolboy editor (Wow!).

Trades: will continue until issue 30. With issue 30 I will include subscriptions to every zine I'm playing in. The rest must go.

The Gamefees for P/14 and outstanding credit will be transferred to Willy immediately, though I will retain 20p for issue 30.

The following amount of credit is being transferred on your behalf:

P/7V and Kingmaker to respective GM's by FRIDAY 21st SEPTEMBER

Of course I owe you all an explanation - I know this sounds daft, but I'm too emetional to tell you now.

I don't know what to say.

Steve

game?
Con-London: I hear that the new zines are looking for good Diplomacy players;
although I hear Richard will do.

Russia (CVMT)-All: This could be it, if various players seize their opportunities to vent their grudges against me. But I hope not, because the game would be much more of a two-horse race.

Istanbul-Rome: You admit to it then because you did vote Liberal. (Who else would vote for Castle anyway, except Agar?)

Paris-Moscow: This ought to be OK. Sorry if it isn't.

Rome-Paris: And you know where you can shove your deal! I shall fight to the bitter end to ensure Ian gets his draw - why put all the blame on you!?!

Rome-Berlin: Scratch my back and I'll stab yours.

Paris-Rome: If you don't stop attacking me I shall have to consider a punitive expedition.

Mos-Par: You're too nice to win this game.
