SPREAD BETTING Started two issues ago but you can join in with a £10 AND a £5 bet in each market.

Standbys requires to take over from Keith Loveys in Intimate Diplomacy (2) and Outpost (3). If we don't get any volunteers I'll order for Keith in the meantime.

Waiting Lists

UNITED No vacancies but there may be one soon. Contact Mick or Stephen if you're interested.

OUTPOST Average cards. None on the list, several wanted

ACQUIRE John Webley, Kevin Lee, John Colledge, Bill Dove, Ian Andrews, Kath Collman. We'll start one new game next issue and probably one more the following one.

RAILWAY RIVALS Rob Thomasson, Kevin Lee, John Webley, John Colledge, Peter Hawkins. Not much agreement on the map so I'll choose the one you disliked least which is S.E USA. Gamestart next issue.

INTIMATE DIPLOMACY Peter Hawkins. ~~Richard Young~~ Richard Young. Pref lists?

BLOODSTOCK

August 2003

Published by Mick Haytack

Issue 162

"Listen ... you go tell Billy's mother. and I'll start looking for another old tire."

75p inc postage (UK) £1 (Europe)

Although I won Silver and Bronze medals in the poker at Mindsports they could easily have been a couple of Golds. In the heads-up Omaha I held A ♣ 10 ♣ A ♦ 10 ♠ and went all-in. The flop was a very disappointing 3♦ 5♦ 7♦ giving my opponent a flush and me virtually no outs. In the 2-day 7 card stud I held the smallest number of chips with three players remaining. The chip leader had to make a compulsory bet with a 5, Ben went all-in with a Ten showing and I had K ♥ showing with 2 red Aces in the hole. That looked like an all-in bet to me but although I ended up with 7 red cards I didn't hit a flush while Ben made 2 pairs and the chip leader made a flush on the river. All three medals were decided on one hand. In the bridge Senior pairs I picked up the best hand I've ever had ♠ A K Q J T 9 4 ♥ A K Q 3 ♦ K 7. I opened 4NT (specific Ace asking) and when my partner responded 5♦ I bid 7♠. There was an uncomfortable moment when the opening leader asked my partner what the 4NT was. "Blackwood," he replied. I was quite relieved when the opening leader placed A ♣ on the table. Partner had the Q ♦ to go with his Ace so I could claim at trick one.

Editorial

Keith Loveys

I'm afraid that we start with some very sad news. Keith Loveys, one of our founder players in Bloodstock has died suddenly and unexpectedly. From what I've been told he had some sort of problem with his appendix. I didn't know Keith very well as a person, he was a quiet sort of chap but his reputation as a games player was second to none.

He folded his first zine Snorwood Gazette in 1982 (the year I joined the hobby). Apart from the fact it was one of the first multi-games zines (i.e. not just Diplomacy) I can't tell you much about it. It ran for 42 issues.

Shortly after that fold he started Track Events which, as its name implies ran mainly railway games. He later added a United league which ran for several seasons before reverting to 18XX games with the addition of Outpost. He had just published issue number 252.

As an editor and GM he was totally reliable, he very rarely made mistakes with his adjudications and I can't ever remember his zine being seriously late.

But, it's as one of the hobby's great games players that I'll remember him. Not just for the quality of his gaming but at times for the sheer quantity. I once tried to count the number of games he was playing at the same time and it came to well over 120. Included in this were over 20 postal football games and 10 or more Diplomacy games and variants. He was involved in 10 games currently running in Bloodstock.

He was also a top-class bridge player, I think he had represented England on at least one occasion and I know the late Richard Sharp rated him as the best bridge player in the hobby.

So, it's goodbye to yet another hobby legend and one who I will really miss.

Ben and I spent most of the last two weeks at the 7th Mindsport Olympiad in Manchester. I had some modest success, a Gold in the Lost Cities and a Silver and Bronze in the poker. However, my success pales into insignificance compared to Ben who picked up two adult Silvers in Puerto Rico and poker and a Bronze in Pacru. He won 7 further junior medals 4 Gold and 3 Silver. The best of these was in the Lost Cities where he needed to win his last match 2-0 to win the Gold for me, and the junior Gold for himself. The venue was quite acceptable, most of the events were well-run and the attendance was up on last year. Now they've got the same venue booked for the next four years maybe they can attract more entrants.

Mindsports rounded off a good month for Ben as he achieved the necessary A level results, 2 A's and a B to ensure his place at Durham university. He'll be going there next month and can talk of nothing else at present.

We'll now go to just set of numbers a turn. Turn 15) 1,3,4,6,6

CHRISTIAN BOOKED

Douglas Town 1 0 0 3 All in the Family

This wasn't much better. At least all the shots were on target and Christian became excited enough to be booked. This was the end of one of the 100% records - can Stanmore manage another win?

Wolfe

Stanmore United 8 1 0 0 Nursery Rhymers

Yes they can! Wolfe made sure of it in the second half, with the Rhymers unable to create a chance.

Craxus 2

Holy Wanderers 9 2 0 0 Cafe de Nouvion

The Wanderers secure their first home points of the season thanks to a rare brace from Craxus. Cafe, like so many teams in division 3 this session, cannot muster a shot on goal.

Sitcom Select XI 7 0 0 7 Halesowen Town

Third played fourth, leading to that rare thing - a competitive match in division 3! Unfortunately for the crowd, "competitive" didn't mean that either side managed a goal, but both came close and both stay three points off the pace.

Cup Round 1 Replays

Mercer, Lofting,

Rust Academical 20 4 0 3 Old Uffingtonians

Prince, Houston

Rust made no mistake this time, after throwing away the original tie. Four goals, spread around the side, left Old Uffingtonians to face Sitcom in the Bowl.

Gashtek, Rackhir

Hartshill Rovers 17 2 2 16 Chalet School Wdrs

Simone, Marani

Arioch, Rackhir

Hartshill Rovers 16 2 1 12 Chalet School Wdrs

Jo Bettany

After a six-goal thriller in the first tie, Hartshill and Chalet School served up another end-to-end tussle in the replay and still couldn't decide it. In the final replay, on neutral ground, Hartshill finally broke the deadlock to secure a home tie against Gothic in the next round.

Young Chelsea BC 3 0 0 1 New World Order

Young Chelsea BC 0 0 1 2 New World Order

Cafiso

It took well over 250 minutes of football, with a penalty shootout looking certain, before Cafiso finally managed to get a shot on target to send New World Order staggering through

Old Amsterdam

Grandes Fromages 10 1 2 23 Gamblers United

Javelin 2

The first tie was a dull affair. The replay was anything but, as Gamblers went for goal and left gaps to exploit. Jay Javelin was the hero of the hour with two goals to end a very successful session for the Gamblers.

Discipline

The two teams with a bye will get 1/2 VP as if they had a draw. I will include this 1/2 VP in your totals when you have it.

Blore Battle Town 3 1 0 0 Holy Wanderers

An uneventful game, with one bright moment – Blore's goal. Otherwise, Holy Wanderers could create nothing and Battle Town were just happy to have scored a goal.

CRANE BOOKED Cafe de Nouvion 0 0 3 10 Halesowen Town May 2, Collins
 Halesowen gain a place to third with a relatively easy win over a disappointing Café. This was the fourth match in a row where the losing team couldn't manage a shot.

League Week 5

Division 1

Red New United Colours 11 1 3 4 West Bromwich A Byrne, Yeats, Tau
 The Colours come crashing down to earth after an astonishing defeat to West Brom. The visitors managed to get three long shots on target and scored with all of them, while the Colours could only manage a single goal in reply. This slightly (OK, very), freakish result has thrown the first division wide open again.

Young 3, Marino 2 Gridiron Wanderers 13 5 0 6 Roundhead Warriors
 Well, it seems that Gridiron have just been holding back for this match! All those near misses, deflections off the post, fingertip saves and the like which have kept them out suddenly disappeared and Roundhead were blown away. As in Roundhead's last match, the result was fair but the scoreline was excessive.

Nearly Famous 7 0 0 4 Southampton
 Another goalless draw for Nearly Famous, who struggled to get anything on target at all. Southampton will probably be happy with a point in the melee that is the lower half of the table.

Miss Wilson, Venables, Cochrane (pen) Chalet School Wdrs 5 3 0 15 Rust Academical
 Rust's away form deserted them again, as Chalet School managed their first league win of the season. Despite Rust firing in shots from all directions, it was Miss Wilson and Daisy Venables who scored, before Eustacia Benson took a tumble to win a penalty and leave Rust with no hope.

Hartshill Rovers 16 0 0 7 New World Order
 Hartshill and New World Order produced an open game which deserved a few goals, but it was not to be. Hartshill manage their fifth league clean sheet, but three goalless draws is not championship material.

Division 2

Ceserea Juniors 5 0 0 4 Siwo Prisoners
 Two of Siwo's players spent this match away at a training course, so Siwo adopted a more subtle approach. Ceserea managed to take a point off them, but the visitors remain top of the division.

O'Neil Plastic Trees 10 1 2 9 Gamblers United Vanquisher, Protector
 Gamblers keep up some pressure on Siwo with a closely-fought victory over one of the chasing pack. Plastic Trees did manage to breach the Gamblers defence, but Vanquisher and Protector replied with interest.

Old Amsterdam 2 Grandes Fromages 13 2 1 5 Oldtown United Isca
 Grandes Fromages pull Oldtown back into the dogfight for third place in the league, thanks to an impressive show of strength and accurate shooting from Old Amsterdam. The top two are now three points clear.

KV Horde 5 0 1 4 Nessun Dorma Gilda
 A generally dour defensive affair was briefly lit up by Gilda, who gave Nessun a badly needed win and left KV struggling for a goal and a win.

Young Chelsea BC 2 0 1 4 Gothic United Kilgallon
 Kilgallon's first goal for the club gave Gothic their first league win and helped them to leapfrog Young Chelsea into eighth place. It is looking very congested at the bottom of Division 2 at the moment.

Division 3

Old Uffingtonians 1 0 0 0 Battle Town
 "Old Uffingtonians are approaching the penalty area. There's a shot...it misses". And that was the end of the action in this match!

There were one or two mistakes in the last report which I've hopefully corrected.

League Week 4

Division 1

Nearly Famous 10 0 0 2 Hartshill Rovers

The home team defied their lowly league position to dominate this match, but Hartshill's goal remained inviolate. Mick Haytack's team are still looking for their first league win of the season.

El Khalef Southampton 6 1 0 0 Gridiron Wanderers

Southampton manage their first win of the season against Gridiron. This was the first goal scored in a league match involving the visitors - Gridiron need to remember how to score soon.

Roundhead Warriors 2 0 3 8 New United Colours Cornflower Blue, Ruby Red, Scarlet

The Colours continue to look impressive and draw a point away from Hartshill with this fairly flattering scoreline. Roundhead never really looked threatening, but didn't really deserve to let in three goals.

Tau, Upsilon West Bromwich A 8 2 1 0 Chalet School Wdrs Cochrane (pen)

THOMPSON SENT OFF
Miss Wilson Booked
Trond Botnen's first match in charge at the Chalet School was a very eventful one. West Brom looked the stronger side with good support from the home crowd, and took an early 2-0 lead. After that, both sides put the boot in, culminating in the dismissal of Thompson and a consolation penalty for Madge Bettany.

Tribeca Rust Academical 15 1 0 1 New World Order

Rust's second home win drags them up to fourth place, but they are only one point ahead of the six teams below them, all of whom have three points at this stage and five of whom have a goal difference of minus 1! (Sadly, nobody except the GM will see this particularly bizarre league table!)

Division 2

Grandes Fromages 6 0 0 0 Young Chelsea BC

The home team were a little stronger, but not strong enough to force a result against Young Chelsea, who may be getting over their traditional slow start.

Pennocrucium Oldtown United 5 1 0 7 Plastic Trees

There was little to choose between these two sides in the league table and little between them on the pitch, but Pennocrucium proved the difference and secured two points for Oldtown.

Brilliant, Dreamweaver Gamblers United 21 2 0 8 Ceserea Juniors

This was Gamblers' most impressive win to date, as Ceserea were stunned by shots from all around the area and had no answer. Do Siwo have a serious challenge ahead?

Dua 3, Lamda, Mu, Phe 2 Siwo Prisoners 23 7 0 0 KV Horde

Maybe not! KV ran into Siwo at their most dismissive and suffered for not selecting a "defend at all costs and then some" team. To be honest, KV were lucky to get away with seven!

Wally Nessun Dorma 5 1 0 4 Gothic United

With both teams struggling on one point, a win would be vital, and Wally secured both points for Nessun with a goal in the first five minutes.

Division 3

Cefnwr Stanmore United 5 1 0 1 Sitcom Select XI

Two of the top three clashed, both with three wins from three, and something had to give. Stanmore blocked Sitcom's attacks very effectively and Cefnwr scored the only goal of the game.

ROOBARB BOOKED Nursery Rhymers 0 0 4 13 Douglas Town Inigo 4

As a contrast, neither of these sides had managed a point before this match, and only Douglas Town had managed a goal. Inigo made a mockery of this, however, with four goals in the second half to leave the Rhymers at the bottom alone.

Cooper All in the Family 21 1 0 0 Old Uffingtonians

All in the Family keep their perfect record and stay ahead of Stanmore on goal difference. Old Uffingtonians have looked good at home but were completely outclassed this time.

ON THE BALL

is Bloodstock's United league, and is brought to you by Stephen Othen.

My address is:

17 Castle Green, Westbrook, Warrington WA5 7XB (tel 01925 710802)

I also accept orders by email - SMOther@aol.com

The next deadline will be the externals deadline, as on the back page of the main zine.

Business

Welcome to another issue for which I was away on deadline weekend – I really must arrange my holidays better! We welcome Trond Botnen this time as the new manager of Chalet School Wanderers. However, I was missing orders from various people for various reasons. I had no word at all from Dave Anderson (HW) or Brent Mckee (SS) and Brent is now on his last warning. I received corrupted orders from Willem Moene (UC) and, thanks to my disorganisation, had no time to get replacements. Finally, Tony Dickinson (GO) has had computer problems. Before he had them, however, he noticed that I had carelessly switched cash balances between GO and GF, with GO suffering a major loss of cash. They have now been swapped back – sorry.

Last time, I sent a new electronic order form to those people who email me orders in Excel. If anybody didn't get one and would like one, please email me. As ever, the use of the new order form is not compulsory, but it does make my life a little easier.

- BT GKs and SWs cost 2 VPs to coach, unless they are schoolboys or ex-schoolboys.
CW You can only sell one player to the non-league each session. Although it doesn't actually say this in the rules (because I forgot to include it), you cannot nominate your goalkeeper as your penalty taker.
GO No orders (due to your computer problems!). I coached your apprentices and Kewell.
HR As I mentioned last time, Raik Na Seem retired at the end of last session. I played Yrkoon instead.
HT Yes, you are the "NT" playing ST in C2 – thanks for noticing!
HW No orders. I have emailed you the orders which I used for you.
KV You can only sell one player to the non-league each session.
RW I should have said last time that you need to spend 2 GPPs or hardness to raise a GK or SW by one level, unless he is a schoolboy or ex-schoolboy. As has been pointed out to me, the cost is doubled again for levels above 10.
ST Telfer has only played two matches – he needs to play two more before he has qualified and can be coached.
WB Apologies for spelling your name wrong.

Non-league Sales

CW sell Barbara Chester for £20k
 KV sell Vallachi for £10k
 NW sell Henderson for £100k
 ST sell Howells for £100k

DT sell Prof Pat Pending for £20k
 NR sell Baby Bunting for £20k
 SP sell Omicron for £640k

Auction

I got the reserve price of items 21-23 wrong last time. Judging by the size of the winning bids, nobody paid much attention to them.

19	GK VI 6 (£60k)	Martyn of GO	to KV	for £70k	(no other bids)
20	DF App 2 (£160k)	Yorke of PT	to CJ	for £302k	(3 other bids)
21	DF III 11 (£220k)	Colwell	to HT	for £801k	(8 other bids)
22	MF III 11 (£220k)	Chance	to AF	for £799k	(10 other bids)
23	FW III 11 (£220k)	Emmenthal	to GF	for £1018k	(9 other bids)
24	SW I 9 (£1080k)	Cthulhu	to CW	for £1512k	(1 other bid)
25	GK V 12 (£120k)	Bends	to PT	for £713k	(7 other bids)
26	DF Sch 2 (£320k)	Annobis	to NW	for £1170k	(9 other bids)
27	Marketing Drive		to YC	for £300k	(5 other bids)

Item 27 is a marketing drive to increase your support. It will increase your home advantage y 2 and decrease your opponent's home advantage by 1 for the rest of the season.

Bids (and names) for the following

28	GK III 8 (£320k)	Jones of ST	29	MF II 10 (£400k)
30	FW II 10 (£400k)		31	DF II 10 (£400k)
32	SW App 2 (£320k)		33	GK I 9 (£1080k)
34	DF/MF IV 9 (£90k)		35	MF/FW IV 9 (£90k)

 G5. Soda and a shot of whisky: not my favourite tipple!
 G6. Lamb, ox and calf are used in a dish of mixed livers.
 G7. Time you solved this connection...

This is your last chance to guess. In case you need reminding there will be a connection within each group – i.e. 7 different connections in all. In most cases there will be one relevant word in each clue, although it could be part of a word. For instance in the last connections I set the key words in one of the connections were Ant, Monkey, Gun, Curry, Paint, Puff and itching and the answer was words that can be put before or after powder to form a well known phrase. So, if it's all been totally baffling so far, give it another look and see if any pennies drop.

Sporting Superstars 2003

Trescothick and Giles continue to lead the way in the cricket, much to Peter's delight. The golf is now finished, there's one more event to come in the Snooker, tennis and horse racing and there are some more formula one races. Pete Hawkins really needs Ferraro and Venus Williams to, at least reach the final of the US Open as I don't fancy Jimmy White to do very well in the last snooker event!
