Standbys

It has come to my notice that Star doesn't have any of these desirable people, so how about it? If you wish (S. Doubleday?) you can send in orders for any misses this issue, & if they are used, you get the country. Also note too, that mail travels slower to St. Andrews, so post your moves in good time. (By the way, several other orders were late, besides the obvious ones, & were included only because I typed nothing on the deadline day. They included those of a certain Holy Willie Figgott.....)

Next Deadline for ALL MY GAMES ---

Premier Gandalf disclosed that within the next 7 days the armoured division stationed in Mirkwood will begin its assault on the Dolgurian fortress with support from the 1st & 2nd infantry divisions. Pollux: Get back to where you came from Heldon or your atomic reactors might burst".

Stella Minors: "Hive of activity". The psychohistorians of the First Reef, founded by Sari Heldon, conclude that, until the great man Tom Burnbull tells the others have copies of the rules, our people will have no difficulty in outwitting all their enemies. Thereafter, with our guidance, they will still have a 77.77% chance of success.

Siwenna: The 1st citizen wishes to retract, but his position is not retractable, in that it was not expensable in the first place. However, he will continue his policy of non-aggression with those who sensibly do not come within striking distance of his forces. As emperor, he feels duty bound to take Trantor, or to let one of his vassals do so. Any others?
